

THURSDAY September 10
ONLINE

13.30-13.40	Opening	Miriam Waltz (NVAS)
-------------	---------	---------------------

Online Session 1

Learning with Water: Modelling, Methods, and Forms of Knowledge

13.40-14.20	Halinishi Yusuf	Governing River Sand to Secure Water: Modelling Coupled Human-Natural Dynamics in Kenya's Ephemeral River Systems
	Liberty Cristopher	Water as Learning Infrastructure: Gender-Responsive Co-Production of Catchment Resilience in Uganda's Highlands
	Cheick Oumar Zouré	Interdisciplinary Explorations of Water in Burkina Faso: Insights from the ECDD GIRE Project World WaterNet
	Elys Mwigamba & Alekhya Kasireddy	Community Water Struggles under Scarcity and Mining Contamination: Indigenous Knowledge and Scientific Interventions in Mbogwe District, Tanzania

Online Session 2

Water Services, Health Risks, and Resilience 107

14.20-15.00	Mercy Kieni	Market-Based Operation and Maintenance for Rural Water Services: Evidence from Bundled Water Schemes in Kenya's Arid and Semi-Arid Lands
	Fanomezantsoa Rabemananjara	Groundwater Vulnerability, Pit Latrines, and Public Health Risks in Densifying Urban and Rural Landscapes of Madagascar
	Alexander Munyamana	The Siltation of Survival: Navigating Small-Scale Irrigation and Agrarian Resilience in the Mazowe and Manyame Basins
	Abdessamed Derdour	Living with Scarcity: Ancestral Water Infrastructures, Social Governance, and Oasis Resilience in Southwestern Algeria.

Online Session 3

[illegible]

15.00-15.40	Eric Suyru	Hydro Diplomacy and Slow-Onset Environmental Changes in Africa: A Case Study of the Lake Chad Basin
	Yeshiwas Belay	Hydro-Politics and Peacekeeping: How Water Conflicts Shape Regional Security in the Horn of Africa
	Neque Alcino	Beyond Relocation: Water, Trust and the Crisis of Climate Mobility in Mozambique

15.40-16.00	Q&A	Miriam Waltz (NVAS)
-------------	-----	---------------------

Photo Exhibition & Panel Discussion

18:30-21:30 International Institute of Social Studies (ISS) (Kortenaerkade 12, 2518 AX, The Hague)
EverydayNile: Water, Energy, and Food Justice Along and Beyond the Nile River

FRIDAY September 11

IHE Delft Institute for Water Education, Westvest 7, Delft

Livestream Plenary + 'A' Sessions <https://teams.microsoft.com/meet/311690644872339?p=CkUDTZdOpMDaiMGfyr> (Meeting ID: 311 690 644 872 339 / Passcode: 36ih7cc9)

Livestream 'B' Sessions <https://teams.microsoft.com/meet/344273004691222?p=eOQqnAVYsxnq9K1ERc> (Meeting ID: 344 273 004 691 222 / Passcode: iZ7R2fk3)

8.30-09.30	Registration & Coffee
------------	-----------------------

8.30-09.30	Registration & Coffee
------------	-----------------------

Plenary (Room A1B)
09.30-10.30	Han de Groot (Operations Director IHE) & Harry Wels (Chair NVAS)	Welcome & Opening Remarks
	Edo Abraham (TU Delft)	Keynote: Pivoting towards justice as an explicit constraint in (water and energy) infrastructure pathways
10.30-11.00 Coffee
Parallel Sessions 1
11.00-12.15	Session A: Thinking with oceans in, through and beyond South African Waters Chair: Harry Wels Venue: Room A1B		Session B: Resilience and Autonomy of Smallholder Farming Development Chair: Miriam Waltz Venue: Room A2
	Harry Wels	‘Thinking with water’ and exploring its methodological implications for multispecies ethnography	Tanya Gumbo	Rethinking autonomy in farmer-led irrigation: Empirical evidence from smallholder irrigation along sand rivers in Kenya and Zimbabwe.
	Tamara Shefer	Hydrofeminist, hydro-artistic thinking with/in/through South African oceans and bodies of water	Benson Mutuma	Actor and policy analysis to understand water management across different agricultural landscapes
	Joanne Peers	Leaking Time and Haunted Waters: Surfacing with songs we were forced to sing	Christian Katwesigye	Effects of Drought and women’s Adaptation strategies: An exploratory study with women Maize Farmers in Mityana District, Central Uganda
	Aaniyah Martin	Afro-Asian Water Feminism and Multispecies Memory in False Bay	Annelieke Duker	Breaking the cycle? An assessment of financing support for resource-poor smallholder farmers in Mozambique
12.15-13.15 Lunch
General Assembly NVAS (NVAS members only), Room A1B, 12:30-13:00
Parallel Sessions 2
13.15-14.30	Session A: Indigenous Knowledge and Innovation in the Blue Humanities Chair: Evelien Storme Vanue: Room A1B		Session B: Connecting the Dots at Basin Level Chair: Emanuele Fantini Venue: Room A2
	Evelien Storme	Watch and Learn: The politics of observing a shared ocean	Yuxiao He	A participatory system dynamics model of the Water–Energy–Food–Health nexus in the Inkomati-Usuthu basin, South Africa
	Steven van Wolputte	From desert to ocean and back in the blink of an eye: water anthropology	Janez Susnik	Assessing water-energy-food-ecosystem nexus policy trajectories under uncertainty in the Inkomati-Usuthu Water Management Area, South Africa
	Annelies Kuijpers	Thinking with Mud and its Manifold Manifestations to Understand a Post-flood Context	John Tumaini	Exploring water-energy-food nexus connections between climate action and regional development in the East African community
Parallel Sessions 3
14.45-16.00	Session A: Sensory, Ritual, and Affective Engagements with Water Chair: Tanja Hendriks Venue: Room A1B		Session B: Responses to Complex Societal, Climate and Environmental Changes Chair: Annelieke Duker Venue: Room A2
	Joanne Peers	We’ve Got Brown on Our Skins Like the Stones in the Ocean: Listening with Ocean Kraals	Rotimi Obateru	Groundwater Degradation and Health Risks in Vulnerable Coastal Communities in Ilaje, Southwestern Nigeria
	Rose Boswell	Embodied Waters: Sensory and Affective Engagements with the Delta in Lamu, Kenya	Bernice Ephraim-Armoo	How Water Utilities Practice Resilience in the Face of Climate and Environmental Change

Aaniyah Martin	Afro-Asian Water Feminism and Multispecies Memory in False Bay	Lilian Nyaega	Prioritising the Flow: Statutory Allocation, Tenure Security, and the Volatile Ewaso Ngiro Basin, Kenya
		Carole Rabemanantsoa and Sara de Wit	On the other side of the crystal: historical and anthropological reflections on clean water in Madagascar

16.00-16.30	Refreshment
-------------	-------------	--	--

Parallel Sessions 4
Session A: Gender, Resistance, and Local Knowledge Chair: Costanza Franceschini Venue: Room A1B
16.30-17.30	Gabriela Cuadrado-Quesada	Caught in the Sand: The Governance Conundrum of the Olkeriai and Kikuu Sand Rivers in Kenya
	Tamara Shefer	Hydrofeminist engagements for understanding and resisting anthropogenic environmental disaster in South African contexts
	Prossy Nakibengo	Beyond Gender Mainstreaming: A Systematic Review of Women's Wetland Practices and Knowledge and Their Impacts on Wetland Health and Livelihood Outcomes in Uganda

17.30-19.00	Drinks and Book talks
	Tanja Hendriks; Iva Pesa

SATURDAY September 12 Filmhuis Lumen, Van Leeuwenhoekpark 55, Delft
---	--	--	--

Panel session 5: What the River Knows; Art, Science and the Politics of the Nile (Emanuele Fantini, IHE Delft)
10.00-11.15	Curating Entwined Stories: Water, Hydropower, Environment, and Communities in the Blue Nile Basin, Nahom Teklu Riverine Cosmologies on Screen: Sudanese Short Films as Water Knowledge Production, Salma Abosamra "A photo, A collaboration, A celebration", Roger Anis Discussants: Gofran Hamed (IHE Delft), Maarten Gischler (Dutch Ministry of Foreign Affairs)

11.15-11.45	Coffee
-------------	--------	--	--

Movie Screening
11.45-12.45	Eric Hahonou (and Lotte Pelckmans)
	Discussant: Mirjam de Bruijn	"River Nomads" (2017)

12.45-13.30	Lunch (at Social Hub Delft, Van Leeuwenhoekpark 1, 2611 DW Delft)
-------------	---	--	--

Walk
13.30-15.30	James Bonner	Water walk around Delft, starting from IHE	